HARRISON WINS

As Predicted by the Eagle Last Week the Former Mayor Has Proven a Five Time Winner.

Henry Stuckart Elected Treasurer and Francis D.
Connery City Clerk by the Forces of Liberal Government.

The Figures Show the Internal Feeling That the People Took in the Struggle from the Start to the Very Finish.

The Magic Name of Harrison Is One That Is Still Potent in the Politics of Chicago and of the Nation.

As The Eagle predicted last week, Carter H. Harrison was elected mayor of Chicago on Tuesday by a large majority.

The victory was a great one in every way, because it was free from fraud or the closeness which sometimes accompanies elections.

It was a distinct personal triumph for Mr. Harrison himself as well as a victory for the Democratic party.

Henry Stuckart was elected City Treasurer by a handsome and well deserved plurality.

Francis D. Connery, the present popular City Clerk, was re-elected by a vote which testifies the appreciation that the people feel for his eminent services in the past and his honest public record.
